London, Sept. 24. Yesterday arriv'd the Mail from Holland of Friday last, that of the Tuesday before is not yet come in.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 28.

From the Camp before Venlo, Sept. 24. Last Night at 12 a Clock the Capitulation was sign'd for the Surrender of Venlo, on the following Articles.

I. The Count de Varo Governour, Monsieur de la Badie Major General and Commander of the French Troops, the Brigadiers Courteen &c. and in general the whole Garrison both Foot and Horse shall march out with their Familys, and Servants, and all their Effects,

II. The Curate and all the Ecclesiastical Persons of both Sexes, shall continue in their Cloysters with all that belongs to them, unless they desire to depart, which shall be permitted them with all that is theirs.

III. The Foot shall march out through the Breach or the Cologne Gate, with two Pieces of Cannon carrying Balls of 6 pounds but if there be none so small in the place, then they shall have two 12 pounders: and Horses shall be provided to draw them.

IV. They shall be provided with Boats to carry the Sick and Wounded, and the Baggage to Antwerp; and 100 Waggon, or as many as can be had, to Carry the Baggage and Provisions which the Garrison may have occasion for in their March.

V. The Garrison shall be conducted thro' Liege, and the Spanish Gelderland, the nearest way to Antwerp, viz. the 25th of Sept. from Venlo to Helden, the 26th to Neerwert, the 27th to Hamont, the 28th to Mote and Baal, where they may rest for a day if they will, the 30th to Herentals, the 1st of Oct. to Lier, the 2d to Antwerp.

VI. The Prisoners taken on each side in the Attack of the City to be exchange'd ransom free. But as for the Governor and other Officers taken in Fort St. Michael, they are to remain Prisoners of War.

VII. The Wounded that are not fit to Travel shall remain in the Hospitals of the Town, and be allow'd Chirurgeons and Medicines, at their own Expence, And when they are cured shall be sent to their respective Garrisons.

VIII. The Women, Widows, Children, and Servants of the Officers and Soldiers of the Garrison, may tarry within or without the City, where their Houses and Goods are, that they may dispose of the same, without any Molestation to their Persons or Effects, after the Garrison is gone out.

IX. As long as they stay in the City or in the Country about it, they shall enjoy the same Privileges as the other Inhabitants.

X. Those of the Garrison that have any Estate, or Goods Moveable or immoveable, within the District of the City, shall have two Months allow'd them to dispose of the same.

XI. The Officers and others shall give good Security for the Payment of their Debts, and the Intendant shall do the like for what Debts he has contracted for the Publick Service; but they shall not be detain'd for them.

XII. The Receivers, and Commissaries of Provisions and Forrage, shall not be chargeable on any Pretence, with the Impositions laid on the Country for Money, Hay, and Oats.

XIII. While the Garrison is getting ready to march out, and when they are marching out, No Officer or Soldier of the Besiegers shall stir out of their Works to come near them, except those that shall have leave in writing from the Prince of Nassau.

XIV. If any of the Citizens be found to have formerly serv'd the Allies, they shall not be call'd in Question for it, Provided they were settled in the Town before it was invested.

XV. The City shall not be pillag'd nor treated ill, and the Inhabitants shall enjoy all their Rights and Customs as formerly.

XVI. The Magistrates shall dispose of the Revenues of the City, for the use and profit of the same, as they us'd to do.

XVII. The Citizens and Inhabitants of all Conditions shall have the full liberty of their Persons and Goods, without the least Molestation.

XVIII. The Church of St. George shall be granted to those of the Reform'd Religion for their Publick Worship.

XIX. The Inhabitants shall be maintain'd in the free and open Exercise of the Romish Religion in all the other Churches.

XX. As for the quartering of the Officers and Soldiers, it shall be settled with the Magistrate.

XXI. The Taxes and Assessments on the City to be likewise settled with the Magistrate.

XXII. As for the demand of the Head Officer of the Town's continuing in his Office according to the Contract between the King and him, The Town being surrendered, all Offices shall be dispos'd of as the new Masters of it shall think fit; The other Officers of the King's Revenue may stay in the Town with the same Freedom as the rest of the Inhabitants, or retire within 6 Months with their Goods and private Papers.

XXIII and XXIV. The Besiegers do likewise reserve to themselves the power of continuing the present Officers of the Town in their Employments, or not. But however they will have a favourable regard to them.

XXV. The Farmers of the King's Revenues and of the publick Offices, shall hold them till they are reimburs'd.

XXVI. The Rents and Debts that are due from the City shall be paid by the Regency of the City.

XXVII. All that the Magistrates have hitherto transacted in the Affairs of the City shall be Valid, particularly the Accounts that have already and that remain to be given in by the Receiver of the City.

XXVIII. The Cologne Gate shall be deliver'd up before the next Sun-set, into the Hands of such a sufficient Guard as his Highness shall appoint, and the Garrison shall march out on the 25th, at 9 in the Morning.

XXIX. Hostages shall be given on both sides for the performance of these Articles.

XXX. There

XXX. There shall be a Convoy to conduct the Garrison and Baggage to Antwerp, and the Commissarys of the Artillery Provisions and Amunition, shall deliver the Magazines to the Officers appointed by the Besiegers, and give exact Lists of what is in them, and shall also discover all the Mines.

Signed, Sept. 23.

London, Sept. 24. By Letters that arriv'd yesterday from the Army under my Lord Marlborough encamp'd at Soutendael, Dated Sept. 25. N. S. 'Tis advis'd, That on the 22d in the Evening the Army was drawn out, and a Triple Discharge of Cannon and Small-shot made for the taking of Landau. On the 23d Count Noyelles a Brigadier was detach'd with 12 Squadrons of Horse to invest Stevenswaert, and yesterday the Count de Noyelles General of the Foot march'd with 9 Battalions of Foot to besiege that place in form: The Earl of Orkney Major General will command under him, and the Direction of the Siege will be given to Major General Gore as Engineer. The Forces that serv'd before Venlo are to attack Ruremond. Tongeren, Hasselt, and St. Tron, are fortifying by the French, to preserve their Communication between Liege and Brabant.

From the Camp at Soutendael, Sept. 28. Yesterday the Cannon and Mortars arriv'd before Stevenswaert from Maestricht. The Forces appointed for that Siege are raising their Batterys, there are 500 Men in Garrison, and 36 Great Guns in the place, which is well provided but wants Gunners. The Artillery is brought up the Maes and landed at Ruremond, the Trenches will be open'd before that Town in a day or two. The French work hard to fortifie Tongeren strong enough to defend it self in the Winter. Yesterday Marshal Boufflers and the Duke de Maine went to Liege to view that Town and Citadel, and return'd to their Army in the Afternoon. The French continue in their former Camp.

They write from Italy that Guastalla is yielded to the French by Capitulation, that Count Solari with 1500 Men march'd out of it on the 10th to be conducted to Trent, and that they are oblig'd not to serve again in Italy till the 1st of April. That Prince Eugene went out of his Trenches to draw the French to another Battel, but they kept within their Works; and that he is reinforc'd by 3 or 4000 Men. From Germany, That in the Diet at Ratisbon it was resolv'd on the 19th Inst. by a Majority to declare War against France. That the Elector of Bavaria has taken some other places since Ulm. That Marshal Catinat is near Strasbourg, and that Prince Lewis of Baden is advanc'd with 15000 Men beyond Croon Weyssenburg.

Thomas Winford Esq; Second Prothonotary of the Court of Common-pleas is dead, his place is said to be worth 6000 l. and to be in the disposal of the Earl of Lichfield.
